Students who will submit their homework must upload it from the virtual campus and sign it from Ofis119.

Supervised Online: The exam will be started from the virtual campus. However, when the exam starts, it will be necessary to open the Microsoft Teams application and allow the instructors to supervise the exam with the camera and microphone open. If the student does not allow, students can take the exam at the Computer Laboratories at the time of the exam with the control of the research assistants. In both cases, the exam will be held on the online virtual campus. Student must enter Microsoft teams application with std.nisantasi.edu.tr extension e-mail address.
