

Eligibility to Take the Istanbul Nişantaşı University English Proficiency Test (NUEPT)

1. Mandatory English Preparatory Programme Students

Students enrolled in the mandatory English Preparatory Programme take the NUEPT at the beginning of their first academic year.

Based on their results:

- Students who pass Section 1 are eligible to take Section 2.
- Students who pass the NUEPT are exempted from the English Preparatory Programme.
- Students who do not pass are placed in a level appropriate to their Section 1 results.

2. Voluntary English Preparatory Programme Students

Voluntary Preparatory Programme students take NUEPT Section 1.

Based on their results:

- They are placed into classes suitable for their level.
- Students who successfully complete the B2 level take the NUEPT:
 - At the end of the second module, or
 - At the end of the fourth module.
- Successful completion of the Preparatory Programme is determined by the NUEPT results.

3. Additional Eligibility Criteria

- B1 and B1 Plus students who achieve an overall score of 70 or above at the end of Module 4 are eligible to take the NUEPT.

4. Announcement of Eligible Students

- The list of students eligible to take the NUEPT will be announced on the university website.
- Students are advised to follow official announcements for detailed information about the exam.

5. Passing Grades by Department

To successfully complete the Preparatory Programme, students must achieve the following minimum scores:

- 70 → English Language and Literature, Translation and Interpreting
- 60 → All other departments

We wish you success!
