Exam Skills Workshop: How to Approach Reading Questions ?

On March 27, 2025, our instructor Melisa Ronasi held a workshop focusing on effective solution strategies for the reading sections in exams. Students were provided with tips on many topics, such as ways to understand reading passages more quickly and accurately, methods for distinguishing main ideas and details, and techniques for analyzing questions. Additionally, students were taught practices to prevent time loss during exams and how to avoid common mistakes.

Head of Department Assoc. Prof. Dr. İhsan İKİZER Continues to Regularly Host Direct Communication Meetings Aimed at Strengthening One-on-One Communication with Faculty Members

These meetings are essential for conducting academic processes more efficiently, exchanging ideas, and communicating needs directly.

Prioritizing transparent communication and team solidarity, these gatherings create a constructive environment that contributes to the program's development.

Open Door Hours' Continues

Open Door Hours' provides our students with the opportunity to ask questions and give feedback directly to the head of the department regarding academic processes, courses, exams, or any other matter.

These weekly meetings provide an important platform for students to quickly communicate their needs and share their opinions on any matter related to the program.
