Open Door Hours'

Open Door Hours' been held in Room C166 between 1:00 PM and 2:00 PM and is organized to enable students to share their academic questions, projects, and concerns with their instructors in a direct and friendly environment.

Class Visits by Our Head of Department

Our Head of Department, Assoc. Prof. Dr. İhsan İKİZER, met with students and visited all preparatory classes to observe the teaching process firsthand, communicate directly with our students, and receive feedback.

End of Module Student Satisfaction Survey

After the first module, a module-end evaluation survey was administered to 724 students. The survey was conducted to learn students' opinions about the educational process and their satisfaction levels. Students were asked a series of questions about the course content, teaching methods, interaction with instructors, adequacy of resources, and overall learning experiences.

"Direct Communication" with The Lecturer's

With the aim of strengthening effective communication and cooperation, our Head of Department, Assoc. Prof. Dr. İhsan İKİZER, held face-to-face meetings with all our faculty members in groups. This was done to gather individual opinions and suggestions and to increase solidarity within the department.

Foreign Languages Department's General Meetings

General department meetings have been held regularly every Monday with the participation of all our faculty members. At these meetings, the education and training process, the overall situation of the department, and common issues were discussed; decision-making processes were supported through the exchange of ideas.

Panel Discussions with Our Academic Coordinator

Panel discussions are held every Friday to shed light on various topics from different perspectives, create an interactive environment while sharing information with participants, and encourage English speaking skills.

Our Academic Coordinator, Siavash Bakhtshirin, moderated panels at events, ensuring that discussions progressed effectively and efficiently.

Presentations on Education

Training sessions have been organized for our instructors on Teams, Testing, Accreditation, and Critical Thinking. These training sessions were conducted to develop the skills of our staff and introduce them to current teaching methods.
