Hard Choices

I finished school and got a job. I am so happy. I make my own money! I set my budget. I want to save 20 percent of my income each month and put it directly into my bank account. However, that's a big goal! It's hard because I have so many things to pay for. I make payments for my food, housing, and transportation! I do things with my friends, too. I like to go to restaurants and movies. Sometimes I get money from the cash machine to buy something small, like a coffee or a book. I also want to take a vacation, but these things cost so much. I want to pay back all the money I borrowed and stay out of debt, but I also want to have fun. I have some hard choices to make. Do I spend my money or save it? I want to do both!
